

Jesus: Greater Than – Who’s in Charge

Date: Sunday 14th October 2018

Speakers: Becky Stamps and Michael Munson

Key Verses: Colossians 1:15-23

Talk Summary

Take a look at Paul’s attempt to lift up the truth of who Jesus is. Revealing to the reader that Jesus is in charge of all things, and that this God who is in all things, and was before all things, and by holding to this faith we will be given life by His sacrifice.

Small Group Questions

- Read this passage in a few different translations. After doing this, what are some things that are highlighted to you? What pops out to you?
- When Paul says ‘things, seen and unseen’, what do you think he is referring to?
- Why do you think it is a big deal that Jesus is the head of the Church?

- Paul says we were once enemies of God, how does that make you feel? What did Jesus do to reconcile us, his enemies, to himself? What is it like to know Jesus sacrificed himself for his enemies?
- What does it mean for you to be established and firm in the Hope of the Gospel?

To ponder or pray about this week

- It may be good to pray for one another around the idea of refocusing on Jesus, as Paul is lifting up Jesus as the main thing in the middle of it all.
- Also around the idea that the Holy Spirit helps us stay established and firm in the Hope of the Gospel.
